Scripture Corner

PROOF OF THE RESURRECTION

In today's Gospel (Luke 24: 35 – 48) Luke stresses the reality of the resurrection of Jesus, the key element of Christian faith. Jesus invites his disciples to touch him. He also encourages them to observe his hands and feet. He even eats with them. This third Gospel is intended for a Christian audience that is mostly composed of Gentiles. The Gentiles were not as impressed by the resurrection as were the Jewish converts. Many Gentiles believed that the separation of the body from the soul was a good thing. When Saint Paul preached about the resurrection in Athens, there was a strange response. The people scoffed and said, "We should like to hear you on this some other time." (Acts 17: 32)

Saint Luke also highlights the role of the Hebrew scriptures in appreciating Christ and his resurrection. Our Lord himself insists that all the Old Testament scriptures, the law of Moses, the prophets and the psalms teach about him: "Thus it is written that the Messiah would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day." (Luke 24: 46) Knowledge of the Old Testament is an essential requirement to truly understand Jesus and all his works, what he did and what he said.

Today's Gospel also teaches us the preparation of the disciples for their mission of continuing the work of Christ, preaching and healing. An important part of that mission is preaching repentance for the forgiveness of sins. We see that commissioning in the Acts of the Apostles, also written by Saint Luke: "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." (Acts of the Apostles 1: 8)

The theme of "peace" is stressed today and often in the Gospel of Luke. At the birth of the Christ Child, the angels speak of God's peace for "those on whom his favor rests." (2: 14) Now, as the Gospel is coming to an end, Jesus says to his disciples, "Peace be with you." (24: 36) Peace represents the fullness of the blessings that the Messiah earned for all of us.

RESPECT LIFE

WORD OF LIFE: "A model of care has been developed specifically for families whose infant is likely to die before or after birth. Often called 'perinatal hospice,' it's a way of caring for both the baby and the baby's family before, as well as after, birth."

EVANGELIZATION & PARISH LIFE

The Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) is seeking new candidates for membership. The PPC serves as an advisory body to the pastor, assisting the pastor in developing and supporting St. Aloysius ministries, to further strengthen the parish as a living, loving, Christian community.

The PPC meets in the Rectory on the 3rd Tuesday of each month from September to June. Members of the Council serve for a term of 3 years. Our parish constantly changes, with the welcoming of many new families and sadly the departure of others. It is only fitting that the PPC should evolve to stay in touch with the parish needs. Every year up to 1/3 of the 12-member PPC transitions.

The selection of new PPC members is a deliberative process that involves the entire parish. The process begins with this announcement to inform the parish of the opportunity. We are looking to identify potential PPC candidates. Then through prayer and discernment, the PPC will advise Father David as he selects the new members with a selection announcement in the May/June timeframe.

If you would like further information, or to be considered for the PPC, please contact one of the current PPC members - or Father David. Application forms are available in the vestibule, from a current PPC member or from the Rectory. If you know someone who might be a good candidate, please discuss with them and encourage them to consider PPC membership as a way to serve our Parish.

VOCATIONS CROSS and message from the Serra Club

What kinds of people become priests, religious sisters, or brothers?

Are they uncommonly holy, unusually saint-like? No. They are people who make mistakes, people who aren't afraid to be human while in God's service.

Are they people who can't face the competition and cruelty of the "real" world? No. They are people who believe that through ministry they can immerse themselves in the world and make positive changes.

Are they people who don't relate well with other people? No. They are people who love others—people who find real satisfaction chatting with a 93-year-old parishioner, holding the hand of a cancer patient, listening to the troubles of a street-wise teen.

They are people with the courage to touch lives, hearts, and souls in a high-tech, unchurched world.

Are you that kind of person?

Let us invoke the intercession of St. Junipero Serra for priestly and religious vocations and pray this week with Chris and Carl Guy, who have the Vocations Cross!

LIFE IN THE SPIRIT FOLLOW-ON!

We are keeping this flame from the Holy Spirit alive by continuing our Small Groups / Praise & Worship, but we need your input and help in the planning and execution. Please join us for our planning meeting on WEDNESDAY, April 18th at the Father Andrew White Library at 7:00 pm. Enter through the back doors of the school. You do not need to have attended the series to be a part of the follow-on. ALL ARE WELCOME!

Thank You and may God Bless you St. Aloysius Family!

The Lenten food drive held this past weekend to support the three SSVM convents in the Washington DC area was a huge success again this year. Collections at all three Masses this weekend filled two large mini-vans with food and supplies that will delight and sustain these wonderful Sisters in the months to come. Sister Corredemptrix (SSVM, St Aloysius Parish) and Sister Help of Christians (SSVM, St. Cecilia's Parish) arrived and entered the Monastic House of Formation in Tuscania, Italy on Ash Wednesday. This year there are over 60 SSVM Sisters from around the world studying there. Sister Corredemptrix asked us to convey her thanks for your continued generosity and prayers. She asked that we mention to the parish that she and the Sisters pray for you daily, especially for all our intentions. If you would like to get a glimpse into the life of the Sisters studying at the Monastery in Tuscania, their Facebook address is: <https://www.facebook.com/Monastic-House-of-Formation-165077850749693/>.
